ABOUT RIVER OF LIFE

River of Life Church is a growing, multi-generational church with an average weekly attendance of 130 people. As one of the first Baptist churches in the area, (founded in 1856), River of Life has both a long-established history within the community and solid theological and doctrinal roots. The church is also blessed to have a fresh vision to reach the next generation in Hastings and beyond. With a new lead pastor hired in 2023, a renewed emphasis on community outreach, family discipleship and Biblical training, we are excited about what God is doing in our church and are excited to see what plans He has for us next.

River of Life Church is denominationally affiliated with the Venture Church Network. Check us out at riveroflifehastings.org

ABOUT HASTINGS

Hastings, MN, is a scenic riverfront city along the Mississippi River with a historic downtown area, affordable housing, and family-friendly community activities. With a population of 22,000, it offers various outdoor attractions, like the Vermillion Falls Park, trails, and ample hunting and fishing nearby. Hastings has quality schools and convenient access to the Twin Cities, (30-minute drive to St. Paul or MSP international Airport). With its unique blend of opportunity and small-town charm, low crime rate, excellent schools and recreational amenities, Hastings offers a welcoming environment for both families and individuals.

Members at River of Life attend from all over the East Metro area including Hastings, Cottage Grove, Cannon Falls, Woodbury, Inver Grove Heights, Prescott, WI, and River Falls, WI.
